1780	January 13th	Maitland. Here lies the body of Miss Sophia Maitland, who died on the 13th of January 1780, in the 17th year of her age. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."
	May 23rd	Burrowes. Sacred to the memory of Mrs. Sarah Burrowes, the beloved wife of Thomas Burrowes, Major of Caval'y; she died the 23rd May 1789. Her life was distinguished by every virtue which flows from a native purity of mind and a just sense of religion. Nor was she less admired for her taste and proficiency in the fine arts, than respected and beloved for all those amiable qualities, which truly enrich the female character and constitute the chief ornament of the wife, the parent and the friend.
1791	March 15th	Strange. Near this place (whither her remains were brought from Madras) lies the body of Margaret, only daughter of James and Anne Calderwood Durham, of Largo, in the County of Fife, North Britain, wife of James Strange, Esq., in the Honorable East India Company's Civil Service; she died the 15th day of March 1791, aged 32, leaving issue one daughter. Impressed by the most lively sense of those distinguished and most amiable talents which endear'd the wife, companion, and friend, he, with the trembling hand of true affection, inscribes this marble to her memory. Here lies deposited the body of Mrs. Strange, who died the 15th March 1791.
		Monument in the Fort Church.
1798	February 13th	Swartz. To the memory of the Rev. Christian Frederic Swartz, born at Sonneburg of Neumark, in the Kingdom of Prussia, the 26th October 1726, and died at Tanjore the 18th of February 1798, in the 72nd year of his age, devoted from his early manhood to the office of missionary in the East. The similarity of his situation to that of the first preachers of the Gospel produced in him a peculiar resemblance to simple sanctity of the Apostolic character. His natural vivacity won the affection, as his unsotted probity and purity of life alike commanded the reverence of the Christian, Muhammadan and Hindu. For Sovereign, prince, Hindu and Muhammadan, selected this humble pastor as the medium of political negotiation with British Government, and the very marble that here records his virtues was raised by the liberal affection and esteem of the Rajah of Tanjore, Maharaja Serfojee.
